ABOUT THE CLINICIAN

Sam Gooding, CJF

Sam Gooding, CJF graduated from the Kentucky Horseshoeing School in 1996. He immediately began his apprenticeship under Mitch Taylor and continued for two years. In 2002, Sam made a transition into tool making and began working for Jim Poor, owner and operator of Flatland Forge based in Midland, Texas.

Sam and his wife Kate managed a horseshoeing business in the Midland area until 2012. At this time, they moved back to Kentucky where Sam became an instructor at the Kentucky Horseshoeing School. In 2018, Sam and his family moved to Abilene, TX, where he continues to shoe horses, build tools and provide clinics.

FEATURED PRODUCT

Liberty Steel and Cu Nails

Designed by Kerckhaert Horseshoe Company, Liberty steel nails have precise and consistent specifications, optimum clinching, accurate bevels and points to provide consistent driving and outstanding results.

In addition to all of the same great features of the Liberty steel nail, Liberty Cu horseshoe nails include Copper (Cu) Shield Technology. This technology provides more protection than traditional horseshoe nails.
